

I would like to urge the FCC to reject NAB'S petition 04-160. I have sattelite radio and pay for the service, it seems to me that would be tantamount to the network tv stations to petition to regulate what could be broadcast on the cable and sattelite tv stations. It should be left up to free enterprise and competition.